

TEXEL INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT NEWSLETTER

IN GENERAL

You are reading the latest update from Texel International Airport. The Newsletter is published twice per year.

Despite a snowy winter and a very wet end of summer, 2010 has been a great flying year at Texel Airport. Particularly the months from March to June were a busier period than on average. The year 2009 broke all the records and we will not match that this year, but with a couple of good months still to go we should be able to make 25,000 aircraft movements. Since 1997 that has only been achieved in 2009.

You can of course "help" us to reach the 25,000 goal ...! You are always very welcome to visit Texel International Airport.

TOUCH & GO'S: Until 1st April also €4,00 each during weekends

Only in the summer months (April till September) are touch & go's €7,50 each, because weekend flights in that period are considered to cause more noise nuisance in the Netherlands. For aircraft in the Noise Categories 1 and 2 (the least quiet aircraft) there is a noise surcharge. This has been introduced in order to prevent the Noise Limits from being reached during the year. Of course, everybody is still welcome to visit Texel in every type of aircraft. We are an airfield, and at airfields it is the idea that people should be flying!

Even aircraft above 6000kg (DC-3's, Dornier 228's), Jets (Citations, L39's), and all types of twins and helicopters are more than welcome on Texel!

Our main runway 22-04 has been constructed with a layer of lava stone chippings with the green grass top layer above it. This ensures a flat, smooth runway with good drainage and the runway will retain it's strength for a long period! We can therefore continue to use the runway even during the longer wet periods. During the previous winter the Coast Guard Dornier 228 was able to visit Texel a couple of times and had no problems making touch and go's.

Operators of the heavier types are advised to contact the Airport Manager in advance for the latest runway state information.

10th TEXEL AIRSHOW POSPONED UNTIL 28-7-2012

Press Release 6 augustus 2010 – Because De Kooy Airport will be closed for three to four months from July 2010 it has been decided to postpone the Texel Airshow 2010 by one year. The availability of Den Helder Airport is crucial as an alternate airport in case of any calamity and to station aircraft which are physically not able to land on the island. The organisers are not prepared to compromise on any issues concerning safety and regard postponement of the show as the only available option.

Three weeks ago (July 2010) we received the news that the Ministry of Defence has decided to postpone the runway renovations at De Kooy until the spring of 2011. This has been caused by delays to the construction of a new taxi-way which is needed as a temporary runway for the helicopters during the main runway renovation. The maintenance is scheduled to take between 3 and 5 months.

It is therefore uncertain whether De Kooy will be available in time for the Texel Airshow. The organisers have unfortunately been forced to postpone the Show by a further year. The next Texel Airshow is now scheduled to take place on Saturday 28 July 2012.

We realise that we are disappointing many enthusiasts but have no choice than to take this decision. A bonus is that the Texel Airshow 2012 can be linked to the 75th anniversary of Texel Airport. All the more a reason to organise a spectacular Texel Airshow.

For more information and if you would like to sponsor our spectacular Texel Airshow please visit www.texelairshow.nl.

The annual contribution is €350. Per flying hour, when the engine is running, the charge is €55. When gliding you fly for free. SPECIAL VISITORS AND OTHER TITBITS

A number of special visitors to Texel International Airport!

A Cessna 421C is a rarity these days. On 22nd June the PH-RAJ was visiting. Right: These two Chinooks of the Dutch Royal Air Force were briefly on Texel on 1st June to drop off and pick up their payload.

OK-PEK, TB-10 (9/9)

D-IRTY, Cessna 340 (5/9)

LN-OGP, AS355 (30/8)

2-6-2010: For the very first time: a TBM850 at Texel Airport!
Right: This Hornet Moth was built in 1936 and was on it's way to the North Cape!

In addition to the PH-ECC, N212LT, HB-FOY, OY-SCI and PH-XII, the PH-SOE was the 6th Pilatus PC-12 to visit Texel, on 21st June.
It was five years ago that we last saw a P51 Mustang at Texel. The PH-VDF came on 29th and 30th June.

A special visitor was the PH-4G6 (on 24th July). The Slovenian-built aircraft is registered as an ultralight but has the characteristics of a motorglider.
On 3rd September Synergy Aviation flew a charter from London to Texel. After staying two days the Beech King Air 200GT made the return flight.

2nd DUTCH LIGHT AIRCRAFT FLY-IN

From 17th until 19th September 2010 the second Dutch Light Aircraft Fly-in was organised on Texel. The fly-in is an initiative of the Dutch Europa and RV owners and is supported by the NVAV, KNVvL powered aircraft section and AOPA. As in 2009 participants were able to pitch their tents under the 'wings' of their aircraft and make use of the sanitary facilities provided. Despite mediocre weather more than 100 aircraft made their way to Texel.

It is the intention to hold the 3rd DUTCH LIGHT AIRCRAFT FLY-IN from 9th till 11th September (to be confirmed). The organisers intend to offer the possibility for aviation related businesses to present themselves at an exhibition for a reasonable price, thus reducing the costs of the fly-in. In addition the organisers are planning a series of speakers who will be of interest to General Aviation enthusiasts. The organisers are also inviting sponsorship of this unique event, in order to keep the cost of attendance as low as possible.

For more information see www.flyin.nl. Via the site you will be able to register nearer the time, as well as request information about exhibiting and sponsorship.

If you have any tips for the fly-in, contact us via the site www.flyin.nl!

TEXEL, MORE THAN JUST AN AIRFIELD...

Most pilots come to Texel for a cup of coffee and apple pie with whipped cream. But there is so much more to do on the island. At the Texel Parachute Centre it is possible to make a tandem jump the whole year round. The Airport Office offers bicycles for hire in cooperation with Van der Linden. Texel has an extensive network of cycle routes. Of course you will receive a Texel cycling map. If cycling is too energetic for you they even have electric bikes or a "solex" for hire. Ask about the possibilities!

Ecomare is THE seal conservation centre of Holland and the Beachcomber's museum is definitely worth a visit! "The Slufter" is a perfect navigation point to find the airfield. This marvellous nature area is just 2 kilometres from the airfield and is a lovely place to feel the breeze or take a rest.

Some tips:

- Visit Ecomare in De Koog, see www.ecomare.nl.
- The Beachcomber's museum between De Koog and Den Burg, see www.juttersflora.nl.
- A round of golf in the Texel dunes at "De Texelse" golflinks just 5 km from Texel Airport, see www.detexelse.nl.
- See the lambs at various farms which are open to visitors, such as the sheep farm De Noordkroon: www.noordkroon.nl.
- Take in some sun on a Texel beach (we have 30 km of sandy beaches). About 20 minutes by bike from the airfield.
- Or just cycle through the woods, the dunes, the colourful bulb fields and stop for a fish lunch in the yachting and fishing harbour of Texel in Oudeschild.

AND FINALLY

If you do not want to receive our newsletters any more please send us an email at info@texelairport.nl and we will remove you from our mailing list.

You are always welcome at Europe's greenest airfield!

Happy landings and see you soon at Texel.
